Dear Hiring Manager.

I hope this message finds you well.

My name is Unai Revuelta, and I am a welder with experience in TIG and MIG/MAG welding, specializing in stainless steel and carbon steel.

I am planning to move to Switzerland as soon as possible, motivated by the opportunity to grow both personally and professionally in a new environment.

Over the past six years, I have worked on various welding projects, always committed to delivering high-quality work and supporting my team. I am adaptable, a fast learner, and I always strive to get things done properly.

In addition to my welding background, I am also a certified tennis and padel coach, with official qualifications from the respective federations. This experience has helped me develop strong interpersonal, leadership, and communication skills.

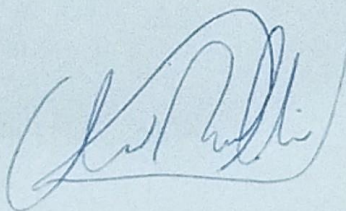

While welding is my main profession, I am open to working in other areas as well. I am responsible, dedicated, and eager to learn.

Although I do not speak German yet, I can manage in English and fully committed to learning the language in order to integrate into the workplace and Swiss culture.

Thank you for considering my application. I would be happy to discuss my experience further and explore how I can contribute to your team.

Sincerely,

Unai Revuelta

Letter of Recommendation

To Whom It May Concern,

My name is Daniel Pérez Marchamalo, and I am writing to recommend Unai Revuelta, who worked with us at Danvimet for three years. During his time at the company, Unai proved to be a reliable and skilled welder, specializing in TIG and MIG/MAG welding with a focus on stainless steel and carbon steel.

Unai consistently delivered high-quality work. He approached each task with care and attention to detail, ensuring that the results met our standards.

While his projects followed established plans, Unai demonstrated the ability to adapt to specific needs as required, making him a valuable asset in our production processes.

As a colleague, Unai stood out for his proactive attitude, teamwork, and willingness to learn. He was always dependable and maintained a positive environment in the workplace, earning the respect of his peers.

Additionally, I am aware of Unai's passion for paddle tennis and tennis.

His dedication to these sports reflects his disciplined and balanced approach to life, qualities that were evident in his professional work ethic as well.

I am confident that Unai's skills, commitment, and professionalism will make him a strong candidate for any welding or fabrication role. Should you require further details about his qualifications, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Sincerely,

Daniel Pérez Marchamalo
